

2 - 5 June 2015

FFAV Cup 2015

Vietnam Football Federation (VFF), Football for All in Vietnam (FFAV) and the Thua Thien Hue province Department of Education and Training (DoET) will organize the third "FFAV Cup" from

June 2nd – 5th 2015

in Hue city, Thua Thien Hue Province, Vietnam.

We expect more than 3.500 children and youth football players, both boys and girls, from Vietnam, as well as teams from other countries in South East Asia.

The FFAV Cup will last for 4 days, and comprise the following 7 categories:

- Class A1: for Girls U12, 5 a side, fun football, no play offs or finals
- Class A2: for Boys U12, 5 a side, fun football, no play offs or finals
- Class B1: for Girls U15, 7 a side, play offs and A + B finals
- Class B2: for Boys U15, 7 a side, play offs and A + B finals
- Class C1: for Girls U15 Elite (National Teams, Professional Academies), 7 a side, play offs and A finals
- Class C2: for Boys U15 Elite (National Teams, Professional Academies), 7 a side, play offs and A finals
- Class D: Football for disabled, sub classes for blind players, deaf players and players with learning disabilities.
No age limits.

To participate in Class A and B: All FFAV activities require 50% boy's and 50% girl's teams.

FFAV Cup will organize football matches and integrated life skills activities in a fun and safe environment for teams and players.

A parade will be organized in connection with the opening ceremony.

A cultural exchange evening will be organized.

Finals, hand out of medals to all participants and closing ceremony will take place in the Tu Do Stadium in Hue.

This event is widely covered by Vietnamese media, both newspapers and TV.

Hue is the cultural capital of Vietnam, and all its treasures in form of the Purple Forbidden City, the Citadel, the emperors graves, pagodas and temples will be accessible for all teams.

We welcome you to participate in the biggest grassroots football event in Vietnam as well as experiencing the fun and joy of children's and youth football.

"FFAV Cup" organizing committee hereby invites you to attend the event!

All participants cover their own costs. No fee for participating teams.
